

My Dear Loved Ones:

God says in Psalm 91:6 - "Nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, / Nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday."

The LORD is still getting His hands gently on both sides of our faces, and having us face Him. He is telling us that He's got it all under wraps and everything is in control. We don't need to worry or fear. And He continues to give us examples of things of which we don't need to be afraid.

There can be pestilences, dreaded diseases, plagues, epidemics or pandemics that overtake. But God promises that He is watching out for us, and that nothing touches us except it be in the will of God. You, my loved one, are invincible, as long as you are in the will of God. Now, sometimes, God in His providence, allows difficulties to take us. But God also knows how to protect us very well. Stop and think of all of the times that God has protected you when you didn't even know that He was protecting you!

As we've seen before, terrors can overtake us in the nighttime, and seem to be worse than. If you have trouble when darkness falls, remind yourself of God's promises to you personally through these verses. Our Father in Heaven watches over us sleeplessly. Nothing can happen to us without His permission. And if He does permit something, it's always going to be for His glory and our good and even other people's good in the end. Trust Him on that.

So, our greatest fear should be fear. We ought to be afraid of being afraid. Or as President Franklin Delano Roosevelt said, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." Why? Because God hasn't forgotten to be gracious, and gives light and songs in the night.

Broad daylight can bring its dangers, but since God can so protect us, provide for us, guide us, guard us and govern us at night, don't you think that He can do just as well at protecting us in the day from all the things that we do see with our eyes? He can loved ones.

He says in 2 Corinthians, that we must not look at the things that are seen, but at the things that are unseen, for the things that are seen by our eyes are merely temporary, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

Praying for you today, my loved ones.
