

My Loved Ones:

God says in Psalm 31:3 - For You are my Rock and my Fortress; and for Your Name's sake You lead me and guide me;

The Welsh are some of the most enthusiastic singers in the world. It's a tradition with them. The Welsh miners sang on their way to work in the coal pits, and the great spiritual revivals that took place in Wales would produce rich music. It was often through singing that the Spirit of God would move on people in Wales special revival meetings.

One of Wales' greatest hymn writers was William Williams. He wrote over 800 hymns, but for this one he is most famous.

This hymn is a prayer for God's care and guidance throughout all of life. It recalls the wandering of Israel in the desert lands, and we wander through a desert land as well just as a pilgrim passing through. From the cradle to the grave, we see a "barren land" before us. Many times in weakness we call on God's almighty power to help us, especially through Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life from Heaven.

God supplied the needs of Israel in the wilderness, and God promises to provide our needs as well. Loved ones, take joy and comfort that God is with us each moment, guiding, protecting, and providing. We should have songs on our lips to ever give to God. The hymn is "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah."

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty,
Hold me with Thy pow'rful hand.
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

We love you and are praying for you today.
