

My Loved Ones:

God says in Psalm 16:11 - "In Your Presence is fullness of Joy, / At Your right hand there are pleasures forevermore."

The end of this earthly pilgrimage is just the beginning of eternity of a glorious life is we know Jesus as Savior.

Our services today should be a foretaste of the great day of rejoicing with all the people of God.

Eliza Hewitt was a faithful Sunday School teacher and very involved in the Sunday School movement in the later 1800's. It was at a Methodist Camp Meeting in Ocean Grove, New Jersey where she collaborated with Emily Wilson, wife of a Methodist District Superintendent in Philadelphia in writing today's hymn. It was published in 1898.

Allow your imagination to anticipate the day in Heaven when we are gathered with victory around Jesus Christ.

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, / sing his mercy and his grace;
in the mansions bright and blessed / he'll prepare for us a place.

While we walk the pilgrim pathway / clouds will overspread the sky, but when traveling days are over, / not a shadow, not a sigh.

Let us then be true and faithful, / trusting, serving every day;
just one glimpse of Him in glory / will the toils of life repay.

Onward to the prize before us! / Soon His beauty we'll behold.
Soon the pearly gates will open - / We shall tread the streets of gold.

When we all get to heaven, / what a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus / we'll sing and shout the victory.

We love you and are praying for you today.
