

My Loved Ones:

God says in Revelation 1:7 - He is coming in the clouds, and every eye will see Him, and even those who pierced Him...

We're coming upon the Christmas season. When Jesus made His first entrance to earth, He was seen by only a small group of people: shepherds. But that entrance made an impact on the world, especially as His ministry gained much notice.

What a contrast it will be when He returns for His second entrance - every eye will see Him. Loved ones, all the events are lining up! Can't you see it?! I hope you're excited. But we're not done yet. God still has a work for us to do in seeking to evangelize and change lives.

Charles Wesley, one of the founders of the Methodist movement wrote this very Scriptural hymn about Jesus' return - in fact, it's probably one of the most Scriptural of all songs about Jesus return.

Even though we're getting ready to celebrate our Lord's birth, reflect on what a dramatic event His return will be. Rejoice in the turrett that you will have an all important place in His eternal glory. Raise your Alleluias now! Sing this to the tune of "Angels from the Realms of Glory."

Lo! he comes with clouds descending, once for favored sinners slain;
Thousand, thousand saints attending swell the triumph of his train.
Alleluia! Alleluia! God appears on earth to reign.

Ev'ry eye shall now behold him, robed in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold him, pierced, and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing, deeply wailing, shall the true Messiah see.

Ev'ry island, sea, and mountain, heav'n and earth, shall flee away;
All who hate him must, confounded, hear the trump proclaim the day:
Come to judgment! Come to judgment! Come to judgment, come away!

Now Redemption, long expected, see in solemn pomp appear!
All his saints, by man rejected, now shall meet him in the air.
Alleluia! Alleluia! See the day of God appear!

Yea, amen! let all adore thee, high on thine eternal throne;
Savior, take the pow'r and glory, claim the kingdom for thine own.
O come quickly, O come quickly; Alleluia! come, Lord, come.

We love you and are praying for you today.
